"We have already read a great part of the volume with an interest accompanied with torture. Uncle Tone's Cabin is ready a freshe back, compared with this, in power of stirring and attirring the semabilities. That book shows, by fiction, what Slavery does for black people; this exhibits in a simple, connected detail of facts what outrages it has perpetrated, through the organization of the United States Government, upon white men and women, and every principle of constitutional liberty.

The book ought to be sold by tens of thousands."

M. ISS MARIA J. MCINTOSH.—We have in press and stall publish, about the 25th of November, a most Fascinating and Brilhant Romanose, antitled VIOLET;

OR, THE CROSS AND THE CROWN,
From the depart pen of the above talented and accomplished authoress—a writer too well known to fame to require any landatory introduction by us to the reading community.

Distinguished literary critics who have read the entire manuscript concur in pronouncing it far superior to any of her previous literary efforts—a work which would alone confer upon any writer high and enduring fame.

Her theme was must happily chosen, opening with a graphic and thrifting description of a wrecking scene on the coast of New-Jersey, in which all on shipboard were lost, save a sweet babe, found by the wreckers, tied into its berth, probably by fond mothers's own hands, as the last and only hope of saving its life; the adoption of this child by the rough and semi-asyage wreckers, and the extraordinary and eventful life which she lived for many years forms a tale which, for thrilling interest, has rarely been equaled, even by the genine of frying or Coopet. It will be comprised in one elegant 12mo, volume, of about 450 pages, price $1, with our neural discount to the trade.

As the sale of this book will undoubtedly be very large, Book schers are most respectfully requested to torward as their orders at an early date, so that we may be enabled to fill them, in full, from the first edition, without disappointment or delay.
